Education	Certificate in Public Education Theory and Practice The Certificate in Public Education Program is designed to provide students with a foundational understanding of the education field while allowing them to explore specialized pathways such as elementary, secondary, or special education. The program integrates core concepts with pathway-focused learning, offering opportunities to examine both theoretical perspectives and current best practices in education. Students also engage in elective coursework to broaden their knowledge and tailor their experience to their interests. The program culminates in professionalization and service-learning experiences that deepen understanding of educational standards, practices, and legal frameworks. Through partnerships with schools and educators, students gain hands-on experience by observing, shadowing, and supporting teaching in real-world educational settings. This certificate is a total of 18 units.	2027 Fall	This certificate will form the basis of a rigorous teacher preparation program at Cypress that is fully CSU and UC transferable and enhances the expandability of the current AA and AA-T.
