Using Note Taking Technology to Enhance Learning Outcomes in the Classroom for Students with Disabilities	Oct 9, 2025, 1:00 pm – 2:00 pm Virtual	Description: Traditional note-taking can present challenges for students with physical, cognitive, and sensory disabilities. Electronic note-taking apps such as Genio, Otter.ai, and Jamworks offer valuable solutions by allowing lectures to be recorded and transcribed. Additionally, through Artificial Intelligence (AI), these apps can automatically summarize notes and generate practice questions to support learning. These programs are accessible on computers via web browsers and on mobile devices through dedicated apps.
